1. Any number from four to seven can play, their positions at the table being unimportant. A card is thrown round to each player, face up, and the one receiving the first jack deals the first hand. 2. When four play, the pack consists of twenty-four cards - namely, the ace, king, queen, jack, ten, nine of each suit. When five play, the eights are added; when six play, the sevens are added; and when seven play, the sixes are added. 3. Any player may demand to shuffle the pack, the dealer last. The pack must be presented to the pone (the player on the dealer's right) to be cut, at least five cards remaining in each packet. The deal passes in regular rotation to the left.
