DEMOCRATIC GOVERNANCE IN INDIA: REFLECTIONS AND REFRACTIONS

2007. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 324 How should governance be made more accountable and transparent? The book, wide-ranging and panoramic in content, seeks to intellectually confront the provocative question and explore, in the process, the highly elusive and controversial theme of democratic governance. It conceptualizes and contextualises the theme in the Indian context in terms of certain specific parameters and clues. The book contains contribution from a wide section of leading commentators, having long years of experience in teaching and...
