Pursuant to a legislative requirement, GAO examined the Capitol Preservation Funds financial and related statements of operations and cash flows for years ended March 31, 1991, and 1990. GAO found that: (1) the Funds financial statements presented fairly, in all material aspects, its financial position as of March 31, 1991, and 1990, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles; and (2) the audit did not disclose any material weaknesses in internal controls or noncompliance with applicable laws and regulations. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
