Society 3.0: How Technology is Reshaping Education, Work and Society (1st New edition)

By Tracey Wilen-Daugenti

Peter Lang Publishing Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Society 3.0: How Technology is Reshaping Education, Work and Society (1st New edition), Tracey Wilen-Daugenti, Higher education in the U.S. has traditionally prepared students for work and social success, but with families, work, and society itself undergoing revolutionary change, is this preparation sufficient to develop the 21st-century workforce? This book explores how evolving family structures, new ways of balancing work and personal lives, and rapid technological advancements will transform the ways that U.S. colleges and universities develop well-educated, career-oriented citizens. "Society 3.0" will help higher education providers and industry leaders understand these potentially disruptive variables and design appropriate programs and career paths for tomorrow's workers. The book presents and explores the following insights: a wider range of family members, not just older children, now attend college, a decision that shapes - and is shaped by - 21st-century demographics; older students, recognizing degrees as vital for competing in the global workforce, now outnumber those entering college before starting careers; today's workers are increasingly likely to be women, working outside the office or self-employed, or applying their education to innovation and entrepreneurship as small business owners; and technology is remaking the campus...
