The traveler trudges o er the road; His bundle seems like quite a load; The thoughts of home his footsteps goad. No need for him the way to ask; He holds his staff with tighter grasp For fresh installments of his task. No longer heats of noon descend; Onward his footsteps slowly tend; He knows his journey soon will end. The sun is sinking in the west, Each hill-top wears a golden crest, And valleys in deep shadows rest. The crows are cawing in the woods, The waning day the coppice floods, The gath ring twilight deeper broods.
