The Manship School: A History of Journalism Education at LSU (Hardback)

By Ronald Garay

Louisiana State University Press, United States, 2009. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 160 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In September 2005, just days after Hurricane Katrina devastated New Orleans, journalists from the Times-Picayune and WWL-TV asked for and received assistance from LSU s Manship School of Mass Communication. The staff of the Times-Picayune used the School s computer labs to publish an online edition of the paper within hours of their arrival and a print edition just five days after the storm. WWL-TV reporters set up shop in the School s television facility and were on the air a few hours later, telling Katrina s story. What happened at the Manship School during that September week affirmed the ascendancy of this illustrious program. From a single journalism course offered during the 1912--1913 session, the LSU Manship School of Mass Communication has a long, rich tradition of excellence. In The Manship School, Ronald Garay, a longtime faculty member and former associate dean, traces not only the story of the Manship School but its role in the evolution of media education in general. Hugh Mercer Blain, a professor in the English department at LSU in the early 1900s, created the...
